

Hospital Survey Definitions

Nursing Personnel Category:

- A. Administration – Chief Nurse Executive, (CNE), Chief Nursing Officer, (CNO), Directors & Nursing Supervisors, Administrators, Assistant Administrators, Department Administration Assistants who are Registered Nurses (RNs). RNs responsible for assuring provision of patient care services and/or for coordinating patient care given by other licensed and unlicensed nursing personnel.
- B. Nursing Services
- a. Staff Nurses (all areas) are RNs who provide direct care to patients.
 - b. Case Managers are RNs responsible for assuring and coordinating appropriate and cost-effective health services for specific groups of patients.
 - c. Quality Assurance/Performance Improvement Nurses are RNs responsible for programs and policies related to the identification and monitoring of patient outcomes and process improvement.
 - d. Clinical Nurse Specialists are RNs with a master's degree in an area of specialization that provide care to selected patients, patient and/or staff education or consultation, coordinator of special projects and/or administrative support.
 - e. Infection Control Nurses are RNs responsible for programs and policies related to prevention, identification and monitoring of infectious disease processes.
 - f. In-Service Educators are RNs responsible for orientation and training services within the institution for licensed and/or unlicensed personnel.
 - g. Patient Educators are RNs whose primary responsibility is to provide educational services for self-care to a specific group of patients, i.e. diabetics.
 - h. First Assistants are RNs who, with additional training, function in the operating room as first assistants to the surgeon.
 - i. Nurse-Midwives (CNM) are RNs who are nationally certified to provide care for mothers and babies throughout the maternity cycle.
 - j. Other RNs are any other RNs not listed above.